BOARDS TO MEET ON NEW SCHOOL

Practically all the Town Fathers have been invited to a joint meeting with the School Committee, for the purpose of implementing and discussing plans for a New High School voted by the School Committee two weeks ago. The meeting has been set for next Tuesday, in the Roman House.

The chances are that the meeting will be held instead in the Memorial Library, because of the numbers involved. It is scheduled to start at 8 pm.

Invitation have already been extended to the Selectmen, Finance Committee and Planning Board, and, it is believed, the Permanent Building Committee, and of course the Town Manager will be present.

The Permanent Building Committee has already been instructed by the School Committee to look into site investigation and other preliminary work. Needed, according to estimates, is a 50 acre tract of land, and reports are that there are several which may be used.

No price has yet been set on the cost of the new school. It is, as yet, too early.

But there are those who are not in favor, and they are more than a few.

Guesses, not all well-informed, put the price of the school at somewhere between $9.5 and $17.5 millions.

THE TOWN HALL HAS A NEW LOOK: New trees, and a new and artistic sign are in front of the Town Hall today. The sign, showing that the town dates back to 1730, was erected last week, and the new trees were planted by the Wildwood School students.

Shown wielding shovels are Ronaldo Ranieri of 16 Grant Street and Julie Miller of 108 West Street.

He'll Play with a Broom!

It was a complete surprise party for Joe and Helen Cunningham, at the K of C Hall, last weekend. The went there certain that it was for another person.

Well over one hundred were present, including many of the teaching staff of the school. Master of Ceremonies was Mr. Crisafulli, principal of the school.

Joe, who has lived in Wilmington since 1927, has a boast that none of those present realized. When he moved to Baker Street, in that year, there were two American Indians who lived there, and the building that he used for a garage for many years was once their home. 'A real American Heritage' is the way that he jokes about it.

JOSEPH CUNNINGHAM: Of Baker Street, Custodian of the Wildwood School, was a surprised man, Friday evening at the K of C Hall, when over 100 of his friends feted him, on his retirement. Among the gifts was a golf cart, complete with brooms and mops, and a small dust broom, to use on the close-in shots on the Green.

Joe was given a Golf Set, but not without some fun. In the Golf Bags, when they were wheeled out onto the floor, were brooms and mops, and other items used by a school janitor.

Crisafulli, in one of his jokes, told Joe that 'a teacher's orientation is never complete until you personally have informed him or her what is expected of the teachers in the Wildwood School'.

All interested should sign up since registration closes on June 27. Members will read different kinds of books. There will be a weekly Friday morning meeting at 10 am to discuss the books read.

There will be also a pre-school program for the summer, the number of programs per week will depend on the amount of interest shown. Mothers should leave their children's names at the desk in the Children's Room.

Summer School starts July 6

The School Committee, meeting last Thursday in the Roman House, completed plans for the summer school schedule.

Regular summer school is to be held in the High School from July 6 to August 14. The Title I program for Reading and Arithmetic is to be held in the Woburn Street School on the same dates.

The Head Start program, under the direction of Daniel Grecoe, will be held in the Woburn Street School from June 29 to August 14. Two workshops for teachers, to revise curriculum, will be held in the High School, a Science Workshop, and a U.S. History Workshop.

Superintendent

One of the items on the schedule for the Superintendent of Schools, Walter Pierce, concerned the positions of Assistant Principal, in the Intermediate Schools. School Committeeman Walter McNamara suggested that the Principals should submit Job Descriptions, to (1) assist in hiring for these positions and (2) to help evaluate the positions. John Brooks said that these positions should not be treated as personal assistants to the principals, but rather as professional positions.

Supt. Pierce recommended that the School Committee should meet with the Board of Selectmen and the Finance Committee as soon as possible, to discuss plans for the new High School.

Also discussed by Pierce was the number of applicants for the position of Italian teacher. He told the committee that he would check into the applicants, according to grade level, and see how the study of Italian can be incorporated into the High School curriculum.

Mrs Mitzi Wolfe, of Woburn Street was recognized. Her question to the committee was, why, in their survey of interest in Italian, other language courses were not offered.

Mrs Wolfe was told that this survey had been made because a request for the teaching of Italian had been

No Physicians. Please!

Perhaps next Monday the Selectmen and the School Committee will meet in joint session to elect a new member to the School Committee, to take the place of William Fay, resigned. That new member will serve until the next Town Election, in March 1971.

There are many rumors about the names of candidates. The Town Counsel has ruled that the election must be by written ballot. There are also rumors that there will be an Executive Session, first, before the vote.

One rumor which has gained credence is that some of those persons who will do the electing are in favor of a man who is a physician, in Wilmington.

The man who has been named in this rumor is a fine man, a credit to his profession and to the town.

But this column submits that, at this time no physician of Wilmington should be named to the School Committee, no matter how good he is.

Wilmington is desperately short of physicians. They are needed, professionally, and of course they are entitled to a little rest and recreation too.

To impose on any of Wilmington's physicians the duties of being on the School Committee would not be in the best interests of the people of Wilmington.

The Jack Of Hearts Motion

Alderwood Estates, section II, has been described as a 'Dead Duck', and the reason for this is the fact that the bond required for the guarantee of street construction is not worth the paper it was written on.

One knowledgeable person who has seen that bond calls it 'Something out of Alice-In-Wonderland'. Others say that it protected the contractor who was to build the street, and the developer, but not the Town of Wilmington, which of course was supposed to be the idea of the bond.

Bonds, as exacted by the Planning Board for real estate developments, have nothing to do with the house-lots. They have one purpose only, and that is to guarantee to the Town that the streets will be properly constructed.

If that bond can be called an 'Alice-In-Wonderland' affair, would it be fair to carry the analogy a little farther?

Were there such characters involved as the Cheshire Cat? The King of Hearts?

To give the Planning Board some credit, it was firmly believed by the members, at the time that they accepted that bond, that the then Town Manager had already inspected it. The bond was brought into the Planning Board meeting, on appointment, by the then Town Engineer.

It can be presumed to have been prepared by the then Town Engineer, the then developer, and the then street contractor, with a slight possibility that the then Town Manager knew of what it said. At least he should have known. He did not attend the meeting.

But there is a sequel, an interesting one, to the story. When it developed, in the Selectmen's meetings, that the bond was of no value, there was a vote that the Planning Board should always submit bonds to the Town Manager before accepting them.

The man who made that motion, in the Selectmen's meeting, was the same man who made the motion in the Planning Board meeting to accept that bond.

He would have done better, in either or both cases, to have moved that the Town Counsel should have approved of all bonds.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

made to the School Committee, and, under the law, a survey had to be made.

Pierce also discussed the subject to two-way radios in the school buses. Terminals could be, he said, in the office of the Superintendent, and in the dispatcher's office.

Frank Trombly, operator of the school buses, had submitted an estimated cost of $10,000 for the service.

After a short discussion the committee decided that the cost of the radio would not be justified by the use it would receive.

Regular Agenda

A seven period day, at the West Intermediate School, was approved by the School Committee. It is to become effective on the opening of the school in September.

Robert Barrett, School Principal, told the committee that the seventh period was to provide an extra period for special activities. It would be obtained by shortening the other periods ten minutes each.

Activities in the seventh period could include Drama, Model Clubs, etc., and the program could be held three times a week. Mr. Barrett assured the Committee that it will not limit the academic endeavors, but instead, it has been shown, the attention span of the youngster in these grades has not grown to that of high school youngsters.

The 55 minute period, he said, was a 'hold-over' from the time that the 7th and 8th grades were housed in the High School, and there was no change when they were transferred to the Intermediate Schools.

A report on the Family Living program, submitted by Mrs. Patricia Gagnon, was accepted.

Mrs. Gagnon told the Committee that the two areas of concern, to assure success of the program, were Scheduling, and Teacher Training.

The curriculum in the Family Living program in the seventh and eighth grades will remain unchanged this year. A curriculum is now being written for the 10th grade.

To have continuity in the program, she told the Committee, she will provide a lecture series for the 9th grade, using outside resources.

Two new teachers were hired for the Reading Program. They were Suzanne Wesniewski, and Mrs. Agnes Daly, Building Principal of the Mildred Rogers School.

All schools are to have a Hot Lunch program in the fall. Those schools without cafeteria facilities will have lunches brought in, in thermos containers.

New teachers elected were: Terralyn R. Dilts (Portland State University), Judy A. Elliott (Colorado State), Diana B. Mill Rosemont (Boston University), Theresa M. Washer (Boston State), Harold A. Brown (Salem State), Susan J. Rubin (Boston University), Carol A. Gonzalez (U of NH), Kathleen L. Kennedy (U of Mass) and Fay H. Page (Middlebury College).

The School Committee voted to award the bid for propane gas to the schools to Gas Inc. of Lowell. They also voted to re-post the office of Secretary, in the High School.

KEV ELECTRONICS CRACKS JAPANESE FIELD

KEV Electronics of Fordham Road has become the first American firm to crack into a heretofore exclusive Japanese product line used in the semiconductor field of electronics.

The company is offering silane deposited epitaxial wafers, with sharp interfaces and thin layers. These are highly desirable for making semiconductors in fields such as the microwave. The availability of these wafers, the firm says, opens the door to previously inaccessible large volume markets.

In the epitaxial (Greek: arranged upon) process, a layer is grown by depositing silicoen from a gaseous source onto a polished silicon single crystal wafer.

KEV's entry into the field is an offshoot of its work in its primary corporate role: using the ion implantation process to produce devizy such as diodes for radio and television electronic tuners.

Judy Klimarchuk Tenney, you know that gal at Leon's is on vacation in Germany where her husband is stationed in the Army in Berch tsgaden - we guess that's it - and while she's there, she wants to say hi to all of her friends and Mrs O'B at the Pewter Pot and her son, and Joe at the Plaza Drug, and Leon...and have a good time there. Judy, and get in touch with us when you get back...We want to go over in the worst way this summer while No 2 Son is over there...Mil Trexler is here from London touring the US with the Professor on his vacation and we had lunch with her at Vi and Barney McMahon's and she invited Vi and I over and Choag could come up on leave...and maybe we just might...huh, VI!

So from Tommy Park on May 27: Hi Nancy: Sorry for not

We all need daily exercise. Yet how many of us actually have it. Are you getting an hour glass figure with all the sand in the bottom?

Can you look down and see your feet when you're standing up straight-or is there a 'beer belly' out in front? Do your legs shake like jelly when you walk? If so, you're unfortunately part of the in-crowd.

Far too many of us are in poor physical condition. We are getting mechanized in everything we do today. The only answer seems to be to make exercise part of your daily activities, like combing your hair. Start now! Remember, the body remains strong only if it is used!

Be sure to have all prescriptions filled at SILVER LAKE PHARMACY, 52 Main St. Tel 658-4617 for fast, friendly service. Cosmetics. Candy. Cards. Open 9-10 EVERY day.

HELPFUL HINT: To make an emergency ice bag, place a folded wet towel in an ice cube tray. When it is frozen, put it in a plastic bag and secure with a rubber band.

Tuesday: Bmis vs DeLoury 6:00; Newhouse vs Miceli 7:30; Compugraphic vs Sweetheart 9:00

In Division II play this week, Rocco's maintained its hold on first place with a pair of wins, stopping the Sons of Italy, 7-1, behind the two-hit pitching of Frank Stone and coming from behind on top Smithcraft 11-10 with Denny Hurder's first home run of the season the highlight of a big 8 run fourth inning to overcome a 7-2 deficit.

Smithcraft staged a three-rally in the top of the seventh to defeat NAPA 11-9 and the K of C on their first game after five losses with a 13-11 win over the slumping Sons of Italy. Dick Elliott was instrumental in the Knights win as he slammed the door with 2-hit relief pitching over the last five innings, allowing his club to overcome an 11-4 deficit.

The Miceli Club continued undefeated in Division play with a pair of wins recently and thus, held a slim lead over Newhouse and DeLoury. This past Sunday a battle of undefeated teams Miceli stopped DeLoury 5-3 behind the stout pitching of Jay Tighe and on Tuesday, the division leaders topped the winless Bedell team 9-5 with Jack Gillis leading the way with three key RBI's with a pair of hits including a booming trip-ple with two runners on.

Newhouse bombed Bemis Mobile on Sunday 17-8 with Dave Newhouse slamming a grand-slam homer Roy LaRock and Dave Newhouse had four hits each in the rout. DeLoury came back on Tuesday to shutout Compugraphic 13-0 behind Ron Cahill's 5 hit pitching and highlighted by Dic Ethier's 3 run homer.

Other games found Bemis edging Sweetheart 8-7, and the Plastic team tripping the winless Bedell team 8-7.

Letter

Dear Larz:

Many people have asked me when or if I am being appointed to fill Mr. Fay's seat on the School Committee.

I am not a candidate for this position. I have asked my friends on the appointing authority (School Committee and Selectmen) not to consider me.

As you know, my brother-in-law is on the School Committee, and the function of a Committee or Board is to give a 'cross section' approach to problems, not a 'family' approach. Many families, including my own, have members on different boards. This is often a good thing, but one family dominating any one board would not be in the best interests of the Town, regardless of the qualifications as individuals.

Mr. Fay gave much to the Town and will be difficult to replace. However, I am sure the appointing authority, with or without public pressure, will pick a worthy successor.

Very truly yours
George W. Boylen, Jr.

NOSEY NANCY

(Fr. Pg. 5)
writing as often as I used to, but since I've been in the States time flies by so fast, that I just lose track.

I'll be leaving the service 11 Jun3 70 for good. I've put in my three years and now someone can take my place for two or three years.

The past few months have been very terrible in the colleges. I don't feel sorry for what's been happening in the Colleges today. The students think they have the right to do what they please. They protest everything just to be heard in the coming future, they'll protest the weather.

Now that the Police and Army are using their guns, the students will think twice about throwing rocks, bottles, and bombs at the Law. It's too bad someone has to get killed to wake the people up. They aren't doing this country any good protesting like they do.

Maybe now the students will settle down and learn their books and study and not worry about something that doesn't concern them.

There are 99,999 in colleges today that are scared to go into the service and do their jobs for two or three years. This is why the protestors are causing so much trouble now. They will be getting out of school soon and they are afraid of being drafted.

The way I look at it, if I can put two or three years in for my country, then others can. I don't like service life, but you don't get what you like all of the time. You have to take life as it comes.

I'll be seeing you soon and the People of Wilmington.

P.S. The Town Crier has helped me a lot in the States and overseas. I think all Servicemen ought to have it. Thank you again 15 more days of Army Life!

And thanks, Tom...Think you might be a little dramatic with those statistics, cause there are still plenty of lads and lassies in the Alma Maters that just wish the other kids would shut up and sit down, so they could get their classes accomplished, and aren't afraid of the service, or anything else...Unfortunately, this country and the press seem to be set up so you only hear about the ones that are doing the wrong things.. You'll find out when you come home how many good ones we have in Wilmington...Like this Gal got thanked by a Mother the other day for something her kids had done to help that family...and this Chick didn't know anything about it, nor did she know that she was getting through to them about the most important thing in the world is what you can do for somebody else...So, you see it starts right in the old kitchen I should tell you...The Park lads certainly show their colors! We'll be delighted to see you...Don't forget...coffee in the Red Plush Pad...

Speaking of the Clan...did those lads do this gal proud this week No 3 Son received his diploma in the middle of that rainstorm on Saturday, and we darned near froze to death travelling out to that Island on that open deck... Anyway, then No 4 Son received an award in English III, and No 5 Son really did the works...with 2 awards and a full scholarship for next year awarded by the Those are my Boys! Thanks, Kids!

Porches and stairways outdoors have a special risk for children and older people. They should be kept in excellent repair, and there should be railings around the porch and down the sides of the stairs.

Steps are especially dangerous in the winter when they become wet and icy. Sand or ashes should be used as skidproofing.

Porch lights are a good idea to prevent people from falling. Turn lights on at dusk and leave them on until the family goes to bed. This protection against falls is well worth the few cents of extra electrical charge.

Repairs require attention when they first occur in order to prevent extensive and sometimes expensive damage. Find all the SUPPLIES AT A B SWEZEY, INC. 615 Main St. 658-2051. ## SWIMMING POOL CARE

by
Bob Le Favour

When we were youngsters the old "swimming hole" was as much a part of our summertime enjoyment as the penny candy store and home-made blueberry pie. Alas, for many of us these memories are just that.

But, for thousands of American families, a backyard swimming pool has replaced the "Swimming hole" and has the advantage of being as near as the back door.

Whether it's above ground, below ground, or inflatable, today's private pool is safe, sanitary, and a good investment in fun and health. Throughout the pool season I shall have the pleasure of visiting with you, through this column, and I welcome the opportunity to present answers to the many questions relating to proper pool care.

It is my sincere hope to provide my readers with essential information regarding proper pool water treatment in order to heighten your enjoyment of your investment in summer health and recreation.

Watch next week for CHLORINATION.

Bob LeFavour is the owner and Operator of Le Favour's Seacraft Sporting Goods Shop, in Wilmington, and Le Favour's Sport Shop in Haverhill. He has been associated with the swimming pool industry for the past several years.

Mr. Le Favour operates the Enchanted Mountain Ski Resort, in Jackman, Maine, and for the past several years has served as an advisor to the National Sporting Goods Association.

If there are any questions on this column, please call him at 657-7521, or visit his swimming pool headquarters on Rte. 38 in Wilmington.
